Head, Division of Solid Tumor Oncology
Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center
Member, Stand Up To Cancer Scientific Advisory Committee
New York, NY

Luis Diaz, M.D. is a physician-scientist who leads the Division of Solid Tumor Oncology at Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center. His team pioneered the use of circulating tumor DNA as a cancer screening, monitoring, and detection of occult disease; and identified the therapeutic link between genetics and immunotherapy in patients with mismatch repair deficient tumors. He is member of the National Academy of Medicine and in 2021, Dr. Diaz was appointed by President Biden to the National Cancer Advisory Board.
